The Rest of the Story: Psalm 1
“Oasis for the Soul”
Rev. Gloria Yi

1. It isn't astounding to see that in the OT people sought blessings in a formulaic way (remember Jacob's and Esau's blessings). Share a time in which you think you've experienced God's grace.

2. My daughter often asks questions about heaven. Can you eat all the cheese curls you want? Can you fly? Can you meet the people you love? But the thing that makes heaven, heaven is that God is there. How do you describe heaven? How does the Bible describe heaven? (cf Revelations 21) How do you describe happiness? How does Psalm 1 describe being happy?

3. What are some “instructions” that you've received from the Bible? Are these instructions metaphorical or are they practical? Have you ever considered the Bible to be a love letter to you from God? Why or why not?

4. What do think of the description of a righteous person as a tree planted by streams of water that yields fruit in its season (Psalm 1:3)? What kind of season are you experiencing? Are your leaves withering?

5. How did you come to know Jesus? Did someone share with you?
